WE DEDICATE THIS BOOK TO:
SAINT ANGELA FOUNDERESS OF
THE URSULINE ORDER ON THIS THEIR 100TH ANNIVERSARY.

DEDICATION

To the Sacred Heart of Jesus and the Immaculate Heart of Mary, to Mother Gerald, to the entire staff and to the Ursulines of Ontario, during this the centennial anniversary of their arrival in this province, we the graduates of 1960, proudly dedicate our Yearbook.

GRATITUDE:

- To Almighty God for His ever-vigilant care and guidance.
- To Father Jansen, our Spiritual Guidance Director, who has given all his strength and prayers to the task of embodying in us the spirit of Caritas.
- To Mother Gerald our true friend and real mother during our years at Corpus Christi.
- To our teachers, both religious and lay, for their unselfish instruction and guidance in our search for truth.
- To the Board of Directors and the Family Circle, whose behind-the-scenes aid has kept Corpus Christi running smoothly.

HIS EXCELLENCY

BISHOP JOHN C. CODY

Dearly beloved in Christ:

This year marks the centennial of the death of St. John Marie Vianney, patron saint of all the diocesan clergy in the world. Besides being reminded to pray for the spiritual fathers called by God to help and guide you along the often rugged path of virtue, Providence expects you to note the chief lessons enshrined in the life of the Cure of Ars.

The first lesson is humility. If you ask why a young man of such modest talents that for years no bishop could be found to ordain him, should end by startling achievements on earth and a blaze of glory in heaven, the answer is simple: he was humble and God loves to exalt the humble who have the spirit of total dedication...Learn from him, too, the great formula: prayer and penance. Prayer alone has some value but combined with true penance it is irresistible. When he arrived in Ars only a few old ladies went to church. Undismayed, the Cure spent his time in almost perpetual adoration before the Tabernacle. Within a few years his prayers and penances drew down upon his people such a deluge of blessings that the devil on one occasion cried out in consternation: "If there were three priests like the Cure of Ars, my dominion in the world would be at an end!"

This priest who at first had been refused permission to hear confessions, was now recognized as such a gifted confessor that penitents of all ranks flocked to him day and night from the four corners of the earth. He often spent 17 hours a day in the confessional. What a lesson to us of the value of the holy tribunal of penance. We must never let the devil rob us of its benefits. How craftily the prince of darkness tries to have even Christians doubt the reality of his existence so that he can more easily cause their downfall! You will never make this mistake if you peruse the life of the Cure of Ars...St. John Vianney was a tireless teacher of religion. Let this be a warning that those who do not take the trouble to know the way to heaven are not likely ever to get there.

It will be a joy to remember the staff and student body of Corpus Christi High School when in this ad limina year I visit Ars and many other holy places. In return, I ask you to make a little pilgrimage to St. John Vianney's diocesan shrine at Riverside and there to make the way of the Cross for the clergy and seminarians of London diocese. God bless you all!

Devotedly yours in Christ,

+ John C. Cody
Bishop of London.

Education, in a sense, has always meant growth. As you are well aware, this growth can be measured in many ways. The type of growth that is looked for in Corpus Christi High School is not only intellectual but spiritual as well. Since its inception this school has grown in stature, in numbers and name. This was not accidental but according to the will of God. Corpus Christi owes its physical stature to the direction of Bishop, which was implemented by the clergy and the Faithful of the city.

Corpus Christi is indebted to the Ursuline Sisters and a good lay staff for its intellectual vitality.

The spiritual health and vigor which can be witnessed in the school owes its birth and growth to Almighty God and the Sacraments that Christ instituted.

Thus, the school is carrying out the hope and desire of the Bishop, that the school live up to its name, "Body of Christ."

Therefore, you the students who leave these halls are able to live the life that was increased and nurtured. You have gained an awareness of the value of a sacramental life: all that is left for you to do is, "LIVE IT."

Dear Seniors:

There is a great need in the world today--the need for great men and great women. Men and women who are prepared to face issues courageously, deal with them confidently and in ALL circumstances to uphold truth, justice and human rights. You must be prepared to counter-act the influence of the worldly, to raise the level of social life, to cleanse the world of paganism by restoring God to His rightful place. The modern world cries out for such valiant men and women. To you we pass on the challenge.

Live fully in Christ

Live courageously with Christ

Live joyfully for Christ

that the cause of Christ may triumph in our midst.

God Bless you,

Mother Gerald.

CARITAS

Charity is a virtue which has three separate objects: God, neighbour and self.

We at Corpus Christi have the opportunity above all others, to know and to grow in the true meaning of "Caritas". Charity is one of the basic teachings which we have learned to respect in our first year here. We are now in our senior year and very soon the light of a completely new world will be shining down upon us. Graduates of the past are always proud to look back upon their pleasant years at Corpus Christi. In their respective vocations they have never forgotten the lessons of charity which they learned through the teachings of their devoted teachers.

Will Corpus Christi be able to say that the graduates of 1960 have preserved the tradition of "Caritas"? May the Holy Spirit enlighten us that we may attain to the Supreme Charity.

EDUCATION

preparation for the work of life

Ford of Canada encourages young people in their search for education. Over the past six years, 36 university scholarships have been awarded to the sons and daughters of employees.

The young men and women chosen may select any approved college or university in Canada.

Ford of Canada also helps support a number of youth programs including the Canadian Council for 4-H Clubs.

To stimulate creative talent and fine craftsmanship, the Ontario Student Craftsman's Fair selects the projects entered by Ontario students in the Industrial Arts Awards sponsored annually by Ford Motor Company.

Teaching aids and educational motion pictures are made available to Canadian schools. In addition, Ford of Canada Dealers in many communities participate in High School driver education projects.

We are proud to be associated with many educational activities, because we believe that a sound education is the best preparation for the challenges and opportunities of the future.
